Prince William County Court

June 4th, 1823.
ORDERED, that some competent person be employed to examine the work done towards the erection of a Bridge across Cedar Run opposite Brentsville, and report to the Court, at the next August term, his opinion thereupon, and particularly whether it would be expedient to complete the Bridge upon its present foundation, or to rebuild it; and that proposals, embracing plans and estimates, be invited, by advertisement in two or more newspapers; which proposals to be exhibited to this Court at the next August term, for completing the Bridge on its present foundation; for rebuilding the same of stone, if deemed advisable, and for the erection of a Wooden Bridge in the same place, including in the two last cases the materials of the present Bridge; and that Bernard Hoove be requested to carry this order into effect, and be authorized to publish such specifications of the work to be done as he may consider proper.

A Copy Test,

P. D. DAWE, C. C.

To Contractors.

The attention of Bridge-builders, and others disposed to contract for the work described in the foregoing order, is hereby invited: all who are inclined to contract for the work to be done in either manner, as above described, are requested to examine the situation and materials for the Bridge, and to put in sealed proposals for the same on or before the second day of August next, or to meet at Brentsville on the first Monday in that month (Court day) prepared to submit their proposals to Prince William County Court. Any information which may be desired in regard to the specifications may be had on application to me, until the 2nd day of August next.

BERNARD HOOVE, Alexandria.

The Editors of the Intelligencer will please publish the above until the 2d August, and send their account to this office.

Now is the time to use Stomachic Bitters, a Grand Restorative to Health DOCT WEDDERBURN, informs his friends and the public generally, he has now on hand at his Shop on Fairfax-street, a large supply of the above unequalled article, by the bottle, dozen, gallon or quart. All who are desirous of enjoying that inestimable blessing, health—in climates like this, where fevers and miasmas, are so common at this, and other seasons of the year, will find it to their advantage to use them two or three times a day, as great benefits will be derived from them. In extreme cases of debility, they have seldom failed to have the desired effect, as can be proved by a number of our most respectable citizens of both sexes. They have also been used in many places in Virginia, viz: Richmond, Norfolk, Gosport, Hampton on the Potomac, Rappahan-noc and James Rivers, and the lower counties of Maryland.—They also have been spoken highly of in Kentucky, Pensacola Tallahassee, Key West, New Orleans, Matanzas, (Cuba), Bermuda, St. Thomas, St. Bartholomews and Martinique. Each bottle has a label of directions, and is sealed and stamped with my seal, to prevent counterfeits.
Price 50 cents per bottle, or $5 per dozen. Retailers have frequently sold them at $1.
